25X1

1. In late May 1953, it was planned to have Major General Heinrich Heitsch, relieved as commander of rear services by Major General Walter Allenstein, on 1 June 1953 and to reassign him to the VP school in Doebeln as school commander.¹

25X1

2. the vacation of several VP billets was in connection with the induction to a 3-month course of infantry training of all fit 18- to 30-year-old members of the SED and FDJ after 6 June 1953. It was planned to grant the inductees no leave during this period of time and also to forbid any contact with their families. The capacity of the Nochten summer camp near Weisswasser, which previously was 8,000 men, was raised to 16,000 men in connection with this action. It was planned to induct the 30- to 50-year-old members of the SED and its affiliations under similar conditions for earth-work.²
